

URGENT WEBINAR FOR Ethnic Minority Midwifery STAFF

Vaccination and the impact on employment

Chief Nursing Officer, Chief Midwifery Officer Black Minority Ethnic Strategic Advisory Group

Date: Tuesday 01 Feb 2022

Time: 18.00 – 19.45

(This is an informal webinar and is a safe space for colleagues to join, listen and ask questions/concerns)

Time	Item	Speaker
18.00	Welcome and housekeeping	Professor Jacqueline Dunkley-Bent OBE Chief Midwifery Officer, NHS England and NHS Improvement
18.10	How the immune system works &amp; How the body protects itself from infections	Dr Donald Palmer Associate Professor of immunology
18:25	Pharmaceutical matters and Vaccines	Dr. Raliat Onatade IPresc., FRPharmS, Group Chief Pharmacist and Clinical Director for Medicines Optimisation, Barts Health
18:40	SARS Covid Update and Variants of Concern (VOC)	Dr.Malur Sudhanva OBE Consultant Virologist, South London Specialist Virology Centre, Infection Sciences, King's College NHS Foundation Trust Lead Clinical Advisor for Lab Team of NHS Test & Trace, UK HSA [Lighthouse Labs and local advisor for Milton Keynes LHL
19:00	Vaccination as a Condition of Deployment (VCOD) for Healthcare Workers regulation planning and preparation	Felicia Kwaku OBE Chair of the Chief Nurse and Chief Midwife BME Senior Advisory Group
19.15	OD and HR Matters	Roujin Ghamsari Deputy Director of People, NHS England and NHS Improvement
19.25	Q &amp; A	Jess Read Deputy Chief Midwifery Officer - England; Leadership and Profession, NHS England and NHS Improvement
19.40	Closing Remarks	Wendy Olayiwola BEM National Maternity Lead for Equality, NHS England and NHS Improvement