

Developing Aspirant Leaders programme – cohort 2

17 June 2022

10.00 – 11.15am

Teams meeting

#MidlandsAspirantLeaders

Developing Aspirant Leaders - nurturing leadership, growing representation

About the event

NHS England and NHS Improvement (Midlands) is about to open applications for its Developing Aspirant Leaders Programme (DAL) - cohort 2.

This innovative programme supports ethnic minority nurses and midwives aspiring towards a senior leadership role.

Who's the event for?

- Ethnic minority nurses and midwives (band 6-8a)
- Potential executive sponsors
- Line Managers
- HR & OD personnel
- Communications personnel

Agenda

- What is the Developing Aspirant Leaders programme?
- Benefits of the programme
- How to apply and top tips for your application
- Hear from current aspirant leaders
- What to expect on your leadership journey
- Question & Answer session.

How to apply to attend

No need to register. Join the teams meeting here:

Click here to join the meeting

For more details contact:

NHSEI Midlands Nursing Workforce team
england.midlandsnursingworkforce@nhs.net or visit the DAL FuturesNHS site here

"The course has provided me with the skills I need to look beyond my initial post... I have learnt in this programme to make changes to my Trust and provide a better outcome for the women and their families."

Carol King-Stephens (Cohort 1)

Equality and Inequality Lead Midwife
Walsall Healthcare NHS Trust

"The Midlands Aspirant Leadership Programme has provided me with new skill sets and the confidence to grow in my current role and plan my future ambitions, safe in the knowledge I have been enabled to negotiate barriers ahead of me."

Afrah Muflihi (Cohort 1)

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Lead
Midwife
Sandwell and West Birmingham
Hospitals Trust

